Sir Knight Kenneth E. Rose, Master

What is a Callout?

What can be worn at a Callout?

Modified October 6, 2026 (Initial release July 1, 2019)

Note: All call outs must be submitted to the Faithful Navigator for approval.

Funerals, church processions, and other events on church grounds. The Faithful Navigator must be contacted for all events and provided with the date, time, location, and specific Honor Corps request. The Faithful Navigator will forward this information to the Worthy Marshal for approval. Once approval is given, the Faithful Navigator will notify the Color Corps Commander of the call-out. Marshals, please send approval to Master by text or email.

All off ground call outs must have Masters approval to proceed. Marshal will request approval.

Here are just some examples:

- A Callout could be a Funeral for a fallen Knight
- A Callout could be marching in a parade, approved by the Master
- A Callout could be a Blue/Red/White Mass
- A Callout could be at a Mass where the principal celebrant is the Bishop
- A Callout could be at a Mass when asked by the local Pastor
- A Callout could be presenting colors at a local school or Community event

Here is what has been approved:

- The new uniform, with service Beret, Baldric, Sword & White Gloves
- Alternately a tuxedo or solid black/dark blue suit would can be worn, white long sleeve dress shirt, no cuff links, no button down collar, black/dark tie, with social baldric under coat, white gloves
- Black Face Mask when a Face Mask is required due to local requirements
